COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Air Gun Challenge: Doing fine.

AR Competition: Doing well.

Black Powder: No report.

Bolt Gun: No report.

Bullseye: No report.

CMP/DCPM: Good turnout for last match. Next match August 12th.

Cowboy: Stage 9 has been rebuilt. 145 registered for State match and over 70 for the River Cruise.

High Power: No report.

Milan U18: Working on write-up for website.

MPS: Going OK.

PPC: No report.

Smallbore Silhouette: Going well.

Smallbore: No report.

YSSA: New write-up will be on website soon.

Pop & Snacks: OK

Grounds / Buildings: Scrapped old Weber grills, need to replace and purchase cattle panels. They are working better than plywood sheets now. Jim C. will check with different discipline chairs if any tree limbs need to be removed to see about getting them professionally done.

OLD BUSINESS:

Jim Granger stated the Smallbore Range Upgrade is doing well and signs and metal markers are needed yet.

Jeff Amidon is working on designing graphic for overhead sign and Jim C. will look into a printer for it.

Discussion was heard on the Conventional range and testing on backing and belting is being done. Different suggestions are being discussed and will be followed up on.

Joyce T. is waiting on response from Forestry consultant, last word was that it would be soon for the plan to be presented.

The 200 yard shed is now empty and Cowboys will be using some of the old targets.

Jim C is in communication with American Industrial Door and they are waiting on two improved versions of the keypads and then they will have tech install them.

Bob Scheer was able to obtain 600 cardboard sheets from Liberty and they will be managed appropriately. Some will need to be cut to a certain size.

NEW BUSINESS:

It was reminded that MRC members should utilize the MEMBERS AREA on the website to stay better informed.

Much discussion was heard on the 200 yard footbridge, it is in poor condition and has a significant lean to it and is unsafe to walk on. Several options were heard on how to repair it and it was tabled till next month.

The Board decided it was OK for SB (Smallbore Range) and 200 yard to be used simultaneously for CASUAL shooting with a common firing line but FORMAL matches will take precedent.

Terry Spurrier made a motion to vote on whether 200 yard and 600 yard could be used simultaneously for Casual shooting and Evan Umpfrey seconded. Terry, Jim C and Bob voted NO, Jeff, Joyce, Jerry and Evan voted YES.

Terry Spurrier and John Sullivan will work on updating the new orientation video.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:14.
