Committee Reports:

Air Gun Challenge: Going well.

AR Competition: Great start, some new people.

Black Powder: No report.

Bolt Gun: No report.

Bullseye: No report.

CMP/DCPM: 14 shooters at match.

Cowboy: 19 people at Buffalo shoot. Asked permission for casual mention of MRC on Cowboy videos.

High Power: No report.

Milan U18: Going OK, getting responses for new shooters.

MPS: Going well, June is pistol match.

PPC: No report.

Smallbore Silhouette: Going well.

Smallbore: OK

Pop & Snacks: OK

Grounds / Buildings: Working on emptying 200 yard shed of old targets. Annual fire extinguisher maintenance performed. One will be moved from 50 foot range to Conventional garage. Ordered fuel for on 5/11. Still trying to get rid of some of the plastic barrels possibly in dumpster. Requested to not bring personal trash to the club. Still attempting solutions for the ventilation system to work as expected.

OLD BUSINESS:

Jim Granger gave a status report on the Small Bore Range. They are starting to build the table bases. Cost for build and labor is $3,100. Adam Ernat will be building the table bases. Plans are to move conex in the month and concrete was poured on Friday morning. It was decided to use 5 inch gutters at a cost of $3,050.

Evan Umphrey is still working with a group on best possible solutions for the Conventional range safety issue.

The 600 yard Pit Rebuild will be revisited in August.

The 100 Year Caps are almost completely sold, just 16 left.

The Forestry Consultant is still working on the plan.

Tim Klauer is working on a new design for target frames and will try to re-purpose some of the old parts.

Bill Peterson requested Thursday evenings for YSSA pistol from April to October. Eric Long is now a member and will be assisting with the program.

NEW BUSINESS:

Discussion was heard on moving IROCC to the INDOOR range since there is still a safety issue with the Conventional range and Terry Spurrier made a motion to move it indoors until the safety issue is resolved. Evan Umphrey seconded and all the Board OK'd.

Wayne Marker stated there are new shooters interested in U18 now and also he will try before December to get Midway to match funds to allow more funding for the program.

Discussion was heard on the Operating Reserve Resolution and whether it should be revisited since we are close to the amount speculated. It was decided that it was intended to be a goal and after consideration it was decided to leave it as it is now.

Discussion was heard on whether to keep the black utility dump trailer or sell it was and it was decided to keep it.

The abundance of barrels in the Competition range is being worked out, Jeff Siirila will sort them out and Evan Umphrey may have someone interested that he will check with.

The 50 foot door keypad needs repairing and it should still be under warranty so a call was made to the company.

Jim Champion will change the HOLD open key code and notify those people who use it.

There is one outstanding bank account and Jerry Kristan would like to get it changed for ease of accounting so that will be addressed.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:16PM.
